

Charitable Contribution Form

The Southern Employee Benefits Conference (SEBC) is a not-for-profit, tax-exempt, educational organization. The SEBC is recognized under the Internal Revenue Code as a 501(c)(3) corporation. All monetary gifts are tax-deductible.

The Steering Committee of the SEBC is charged with making certain the Conference remains in good financial condition. In order to accomplish this and keep the dues and registration fees reasonable, we seek the support of individuals and organizations. Your interest in supporting the SEBC and its mission is greatly appreciated.

The Treasurer of the SEBC is responsible for maintaining these assets in order to ensure the use is for the dedicated purposes outlined in the By-Laws of the organization. You will receive a letter acknowledging your tax-deductible donation for tax reporting purposes.
